CIVIL WAR REIGNS IN BAVARIA; MOB PLUNDERS SHOPS

Church Bells Call Workmen to Center of Munich, Friday

OTHERS REPORTED KILLED BY ASSASSIN'S BULLETS

Berlin Report Says Minister of Interior is Gravely Wounded

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Berlin, Feb. 22.—The troubles in Munich took a still more serious turn yesterday afternoon, according to a Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company.

Church bells began ringing, 10,000 workmen from the suburbs marched into the center of the city and a short time later violent firing was heard, it was said.

The mob is reported to have begun plundering shops.

The dispatch characterizes the condition now prevailing in Munich as virtually those of civil war.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Berlin, Friday, Feb. 21.—Bavarian Minister of the Interior Auer was still alive this evening, according to reports received here from Munich. He is desperately wounded, however, a bullet having grazed his left arm.

The assassination of Kurt Eisner, the Bavarian premier, caused a tremendous riot in Munich. The street adjacent to the parliamentary building were thronged with crowds during the day and the chaos where the riot was in session was invaded by a mob.

At the foreign office in this city, where the news was received by telephone shortly before noon, the assassination is deplored by officials.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) London, Feb. 22.—A German wireless message received here quotes Philip Scheidemann, German chancellor, as saying that Herr Eiserich, Bavarian minister of war, has been killed.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Munich, Feb. 22.—Herr Auer, Bavarian minister of the interior, has been shot.

The shooting took place during a session of the landtag, while Auer was speaking on the assassination of Kurt Eisner, the Bavarian premier.

Auer fell, wounded in the left side, Deputy Osel was killed and two other officials were seriously wounded.

The shots were fired from the public gallery and caused a panic among the deputies.

The diet building now is being guarded by the military.

Hundreds of civilians started to flee from Munich, but the military correspondents, but this movement was stopped when the Spartacists occupied the railway terminus.

The reports received from this source state that the dictatorship of the Spartacists will be proclaimed and predict that the killing of Premier Eisner and the wounding of Minister of the Interior Auer will be avenged in a most frightful manner.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Berlin, Feb. 22.—Minister of Justice Timm and Minister of Social Affairs Unterluffner of Bavaria, were wounded during the shooting which took place at the Bavarian landtag yesterday when Herr Auer, Bavarian minister of the interior, was shot.

Having fired at Herr Auer, a man sprang in among the deputies and fired further shots at the minister's bench. At the same moment several shots were fired from the stranger's gallery. A scene of indescribable confusion ensued, the deputies scrambling to escape from the room.

Spartacists and Independent Socialists have called for a general strike at Munich and sanguinary incidents are feared, as the military command has declared that it cannot undertake any protection against all persons conducting demonstrations.

The insurgents stormed the offices of the socialist newspaper Neipava and occupied the telegraph office and the railway station.

Count Karolyi, the provisional president immediately called a meeting of the cabinet. It proceeded far into the night and it decided to take all necessary measures to quell the riot.

Government troops the morning after have already recaptured the railway station.

The metal workers of the city, it is stated, are preparing an anti-communist manifestation.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Berlin, Friday, Feb. 21.—46 p. m.—Excitement is growing throughout Munich, according to latest advices from that city, and motor cars carrying red flags and placards reading: "Revenge for Eisner," are hurrying through the streets. The stores are closed and the factories have shut down. Working men are marching and calling for a general strike.

Large bodies of armed demonstrators have collected in various parts of the city and there has been promiscuous shooting on the streets. The movement of the masses is aimed at the bourgeoisie press because of its hostile attitude toward Eisner. Most of the afternoon editions did not appear today and the newspaper plants are under military protection.

ASKS FARMERS TO CRUSH BOLSHEVIKI

Speaker Says America Is Contending With Same Faction Which Ruins Russia.

One of the series of farm meetings arranged for each month during the winter season was held this afternoon at the high school auditorium under the direction of the farm bureau.

These meetings are arranged so the farmers may become better acquainted and profit thereby. The meetings are held in the afternoon, and the speaker is free from the usual duties.

The program this afternoon opened at 2 o'clock with A. S. Mitchell speaking on the "Opportunity of the Day."

Attorney Mitchell said that this country is facing a problem much similar to Russia in the development of Bolshevism, and the farmer must assist in destroying this new movement.

J. H. Houston of Granville, president of the National Grange, outlined the necessity of the farmer keeping a better kind of stock on the land which was constantly increasing in value.

The women present, Miss Hasty Gerhardt, farm agent, told of the various activities in which they should be interested, and to which they had paid but little attention. She told of the value of boys and girls clubs, child welfare and community work.

John S. Edwards of Johnston, a speaker of ability, spoke on the "Farmer in Reconstruction."

He emphatically outlined the necessity of the farmer and his co-operation. "This you have not done in the past. The farmer has been acting independently, but now to accomplish the needed things you must act co-operatively," he said.

FEW PRISONERS HELD BY SLAVS

Officers Believe Most of Missing Men Died Fighting Against Bolshevists.

With the American Forces in Northern Russia, Thursday, Feb. 20.—While vague reports have reached the American forces on this front indicating that there perhaps may be a few American soldiers held captive at Volodga or Moscow, it appears that the majority of the thirty five Americans which is the total number listed as missing in action since the beginning of the campaign, must be counted as dead. Some of these were wounded men who came lost in the woods, while others were taken by the Bolshevik detachments which were surrounded and are believed to have died fighting.

One American captain who commanded the force operating near Sherkurst said that the seventeen men were missing after that attack were undoubtedly dead, as the Bolsheviks apparently had conducted their campaign on the basis of taking no prisoners.

GERMANS SUFFER HEAVY LOSSES IN JUTLAND BATTLE

Three Thousand Killed and Wounded and 20 Ships Damaged

MORE THAN 250 WARSHIPS ENGAGED IN GREAT FIGHT

Official German Report of Battle Is Published For First Time

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) London, Friday, Feb. 21.—There is no reason to doubt the substantial accuracy of the German official account of the losses suffered by the German fleet in the Jutland naval battle May 31, 1916. It is learned officially by Reuters Limited.

The German figures published June 16, 1916, showed that the casualties to the fleet personnel were:

Officers killed or missing: 172; wounded: 41; other ratings, killed or missing: 2,414; wounded: 449. Total 3,076.

London, Feb. 21.—Official details of damage done to individual vessels follow:

Cruiser Seydlitz, hit by 23 shells and one torpedo from a British destroyer. She suffered heavy casualties.

Battleship Oldenburg, damaged by a torpedo and four heavy shells. Engines were damaged.

Battleship Mark Graf, badly damaged, a torpedo having struck her.

Battleship Oldenburg, hit by a shell from destroyer which killed eleven and wounded about a dozen.

Battleship Ostfriesland, struck mine which tore large hole in her starboard side.

Battleship Schlesien, slightly damaged by splinters and injured in a collision.

Battleship Schleswig-Holstein, so badly damaged that she was out of action for several weeks.

Battle cruiser Luetow, sustained at least forty direct hits from British gunfire which did enormous damage and was also torpedoed in evening battle. Sunk next day by two German torpedoes. Her casualties are variously given as being from 400 to nearly 600.

Battle cruiser Derfflinger, so badly damaged that she had to be reconstructed.

Cruiser Moltke, hit by three large shells and was under repairs until August.

Cruiser von Der Tann, one turret completely put out of action and another virtually useless.

Light cruiser Elbing, so badly damaged that she was scuttled to prevent her falling into the hands of the British.

Light cruiser Rostock, after being damaged by gunfire was blown up by her own torpedoes.

Light cruiser Weichsel, reduced to a complete wreck by gunfire and was finally torpedoed. There was only one survivor of her crew.

Light cruiser Frauenlob, set on fire and wrecked by gunfire and was torpedoed and sunk.

Five destroyers are known to have been sunk, while others had to be towed into port.

The complete record of the British forces engaged in the battle shows 24 dreadnaughts, eight battle cruisers, eighteen cruisers, eighteen light cruisers and 78 destroyers. The German force included 21 battleships, sixteen cruisers, 77 destroyers. It is clearly established however, that of the ships which actually came into action the preponderance of force was held by the Germans.

24 ENTER CORN CLUB IN GRANVILLE TWP.

A corn club meeting was held at Granville last night with 28 members in attendance, and 24 boys were entered in a corn growing contest.

Under the rules of the contest one-half acre will be put in corn by each boy and the samples will be placed on exhibition at the corn show in the fall. Three varieties were decided upon and the county agent was instructed to secure the seed.

This seed will be presented to the contestants at a meeting to be held Saturday, March 1, and at that time a men's club will be organized.

STORK MAY HELP OUT INCOME EXEMPTION

Washington, Feb. 22.—Babies born in 1918 will bring varying income tax exemptions to their parents, depending on the month of their birth. A child born in January, 1918, gives $200 exemption, in addition to the $2000 allowed married persons, but if a child was born in July, the parent is entitled to exemption of only $100 on the infant's account. If the child was born in October the tax-paying parent is allowed only $50 exemption, or one-fourth of the $200 normal exemption.

This is a reversal of last year's policy. Then the status of a taxpayer on the last day of the year determined his personal exemptions.

STATE OFFICIAL HERE FOR COUNTY MEETING

Sunday school workers, including county and township officers, superintendents, teachers and others interested in Bible school work are meeting this afternoon in the First Presbyterian church.

The meeting is held to interest Licking county in aiding in putting on an organized campaign for a reconstruction program in Ohio. Among the speakers of prominence at both meetings will be Arthur T. Arnold, secretary of the Ohio Sunday school association.

PARADERS CELEBRATING GERMAN ELECTION HIT BOLSHEVISM

Crowd celebrating election of Ebert and Scheidemann at recent German election.

This scene was photographed in Berlin during the recent general elections which resulted in the selection of Herr Ebert as first president and Herr Phillip Scheidemann as chancellor of the newly formed German republic.

The crowd can be seen in "Unter Den Linden" watching the procession, with its many propaganda signs.

HUNS PROTEST AGAINST ORDER

Don't Want to Withdraw Troops From Poland As Ordered by Armistice.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Berlin, Feb. 22.—German troops defending the Posen front against the Poles at Birnbaum have addressed a communication to National Assemblyman Ollrich, protesting against an official order to vacate territory held by them, in accordance with the conditions laid down by Marshal Foch, in which a line of demarcation between the Germans and the Poles was defined.

In a supplementary communication the officers of the corps at Birnbaum declared that it is considered a matter of honor "to hold the present position to the last breath."

URGE SUBWAY AS SAFETY MEASURE IS SUGGESTION

Slow Progress is Made By Committee Seeking Grade Crossing Elimination Work.

Through the labor department at Washington, D. C., the Chamber of Commerce is receiving its only encouragement that the matter of pushing the subway for Newark, will be favorably decided upon.

Through the public works department a communication has been received asking whether the local people prefer that it communicate direct with the capital issues commission of the railroad administration and urge them to carry forward the work, or that a brief setting forth the economic reasons why the work should be done at this time, be prepared and put before the commission.

The local committee has decided upon the brief and it is possible that the committee here as a whole or part will visit Washington and present it to the railroad administration.

The labor department and the public utilities commission seems to be the only hope.

On February 19, the director general of the railroad administration held a conference in Washington relative to the relation of the railroad administration to the state commissions and to evidence a desire for the cooperation of the state and administration in policing crossings and furthering safety appliances.

The meeting concluded with the director general forming a committee of representatives from the various states, but Ohio is not on the personnel. It might be possible that the subway matter could be brought before this committee as a safety measure.

SAILORS ENTERTAIN PRESIDENT WILSON

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) On Board the U. S. S. George Washington, Thursday, Feb. 20.—(Night)—President Wilson spent a merry evening at an entertainment provided by bluejackets tonight. A military party joined the sailors and ship's company that could crowd into the "Old Salt" there on the lower decks of the ship and found the entertainment to be a "hot" one.

The George Washington is again in wireless communication with the shore, having picked up the cruiser North Carolina, which is bringing troops back from Europe. By Mr. Wilson's order the cruiser will remain in touch with the George Washington until the presidential campaign work really with shore stations. Wireless facilities are absolutely necessary because arrangements for Mr. Wilson's visit to Boston are being made entirely through the ship.

The weather was moderating today.

HUN ASSEMBLY HONORS VICTIMS

Chancellor Pays Tribute to Bavarians Killed By Assassins at Munich Friday.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Weimar, Friday, Feb. 21.—The national assembly opened today's session under the disheartening influence of the Munich murders and a sudden change for the worse in the strike situation in the Ruhr industrial region. The news of the killing of Premier Eisner of Bavaria and the probable assassination of Herr Auer, the minister of the interior and other ministers, was posted on the newspaper bulletin board in the lobby of the theatre where the assembly meets just before the session opened.

President Feinbach at once gave the floor to Chancellor Scheidemann, who in an address of deep feeling, warmly eulogized the men reported killed. Even the authorities have been unable to obtain exact news regarding the Munich developments as the rioters appear to control the Munich post office and telegraph office but enough is known to make it certain that Bavaria is going through a critical period. This fact had an unmistakable effect upon the spirits of the assembly.

The members of the assembly and the crowd in the galleries stood in a tribute of respect to the political leaders at Munich who had been made victims and remained standing as the chancellor spoke.

Chancellor Scheidemann appeared again before the assembly after an interval of a few moments and surprised the house by picturing the situation in the Ruhr region as serious. Later reports, it is understood, contradict the information received by Gustav Noske, the minister of defense this morning to the effect that an agreement was imminent between the strikers and the government.

Herr Scheidemann lashed the independent socialists furiously for what he characterized as their sponsorship of Bolshevism and he predicted the complete victory of the government in putting an end to what he termed "these disgraceful, murderous proceedings."

Squier and Admiral Taylor. Governor James M. Cox will make the principal address. Colonel Deeds is shortly to offer his resignation to the war department, sever his official connection with the government and return to private life.

The federal government will lose approximately $250,000 in taxes on old liquor stock in Toledo, if the new $6,400,000 revenue bill calling for an additional tax of $3.20 per gallon of intoxicating liquor is signed by President Wilson.

The local internal revenue office announced Saturday that this money was lost to the government unless whiskey dealers replenished their stocks.

FATHER O'BOYLAN AT CARDINAL'S JUBILEE

It was without doubt the largest assemblage of Catholic ecclesiastics ever assembled at one time in the United States. The Rev. E. J. O'Boylan in a letter to the Advocate, telling of the golden jubilee celebration of Cardinal Gibbons in Washington Wednesday. "All the papers in Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia," Father O'Boylan's letter continues, "There were camera men and moving picture men at advantageous points along the line of march. There were cardinals and archbishops from Canada and Mexico. Rev. F. W. Howard, L. D. of Columbus and myself were representatives of the priests of the Columbus diocese along with Rt. Rev. James C. Hartley, D. D."

Father O'Boylan after attending the jubilee celebration went to Philadelphia to attend a meeting of the Friends of Irish Freedom, there being delegates present from all over the United States.

PREMIER GRANTS AUDIENCE TO 40 PERSONS FRIDAY

Temperature Is 98.78, Doctors Announce, and Condition is Good

REFUSES TO CONSENT TO INJECTION OF MORPHINE

Doctors Order Rest After Strenuous Day of Business

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Paris, Feb. 22.—Premier Clemenceau is somewhat fatigued and will receive no one today, said Dr. Cautri of the medical staff attending Premier Clemenceau after the examination of the premier shortly after 9 o'clock this morning.

"He is absolutely forbidden to talk," Dr. Cautri added. "His temperature is 97.1 (centigrade) and his pulse normal, 72."

Alexandre Millerand, former minister of war, was one of Premier Clemenceau's earliest visitors today.

The premier is a little more fatigued and will receive nobody today. He is absolutely forbidden to speak. Temperature 98.78 (fahrenheit). Pulse normal, 72."

Premier Clemenceau was able to rest well during the night and seemingly suffered no adverse effects from his exertions yesterday, which caused anxiety to his physician and family. During the day he saw no less than forty persons, which the doctors considered excessive for a man of his age with a bullet in his back.

All the physicians agreed that the action of the premier's lungs should be reduced as much as possible, as movement causes the edges of the wound to rub against each other. The only way of effecting this was an injection of morphine, which no one dared to propose to the premier, fearing how he would react.

Last Dr. Lauby volunteered, says the Petit Journal. He appealed to the premier as a brother doctor, but M. Clemenceau sprang up, seized the physician by the shoulders and "shouted: 'What! What! Morphine! Morphine! You want to finish me? Are you in the pay of the Bolsheviki?'"

"Dr. Lauby threw up his hands and said: 'There you are. We want to give your chest a rest, and you nearly burst it.'"

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.

Washington's Birthday gives a splendid chance to public school teachers and all instructors of young people. They should make George Washington something more than a dull and shadowy figure of antiquity, which the children are forced to learn about in books. They should bring out all the marvellous romance of his character.

As you read over the salient facts in the story of Washington, it seems almost as unlikely as the sensational stories you find in the old fashioned dime novel. For he had to contend with obstacles that seemed so impossible. He had to depend on a little ragged force of patriots, inharmonious, quarrelling with each other. The soldiers were often on the point of quitting and going home.

The county was an impoverished group of frontier settlements. Congress was cowardly and doubtful of its authority, and failed to give Washington decent support. The army officers intrigued against their leader.

Commanding but a rag tag of an army, he struck a conquering blow. But most other great military leaders could not have done it. They would have lacked his superb gift for political conciliation and organization. Somehow Washington took this impossible situation of chaos, and made a conquering army and a nation out of it.

No other American, not even Lincoln, ever united all parties to the extent that Washington did. So let his memory be loved and gloried in the hearts of the people. He was one of the great men of the world. Much of the security and prosperity of American life today is due to his genius.

The Jacksonville, Florida, Times-Union is a far class, high class newspaper that recognizes a good thing at sight. The Times-Union of February 14th, contains six different clippings from the Newark Advocate, all of which were duly printed in this newspaper.

"I'll pay no 10¢ a year for your 'news'," is the motto of the Times-Union. The principle of one people in Newark is 10¢ for the paper. The merchants will have to pay more for their interest cost.

"Now high class newspapers are here," is the motto of the Times-Union. The principle of one people in Newark is 10¢ for the paper. The merchants will have to pay more for their interest cost.

The girls in some towns are taught to resist Jack the Huggler, but there is a suspicion that they don't always use it.

SPEAKERSHIP CONTEST.

In the earlier days, the speakership of the National House of Representatives was not thought so important a position. Up to perhaps 25 years ago, the speaker had much less power. In those days the chief complaint was that congress was inactive. The "Do Nothing Congress" was a phrase heard over and over again.

As the country grew and new problems developed, the people wanted things done, even if mistakes were made. They refused to tolerate legislative deadlock and inaction. The congressional rules were so modified as to give the speaker, working with the rules committee or some steering committee, power to close debate and expedite legislation. The minority party under this regime has usually referred to the speaker as a "Czar." But whichever party happened to be in power found it necessary to use this concentrated authority in order to accomplish any considerable legislative program.

This tendency has in the main continued in the lower house. Many observers say the house has ceased to be a deliberative body, and that measures are railroaded through with little consideration. Yet the people will never return to the days of endless filibustering and dilatory motions and inaction.

The position thus being one of such commanding responsibility, the country has a deep interest that it be widely filled.

Both Republicans and Democrats should insist that the congressional majority set aside selfish motives and partisan considerations and pick the biggest, broadest man they have. A speaker is needed who can see things in a national light, with regard for all sections and all classes of people.

ANOTHER AMENDMENT.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)
The constitution that can go twelve months without being tinkered with in these days is lucky. The decision of the supreme court, saying Judge Harvey C. Smith as secretary of state in place of William D. Fulton will probably be followed by the submission of a constitutional amendment covering the point at issue in the Smith-Fulton contest. It is suggested inasmuch as the highest court has decided that only members of the common pleas and supreme courts are barred from seeking other office while still upon the bench, that the constitution should be revised to bar also men upon the probate and appellate courts. There is general recognition of the fact that it does not conduce to an efficient, independent conduct of any court to have its judges out seeking other political honors. The attempt to take justice out of politics has a sound basis, and any situation tending to check the effort merits serious consideration.

Courts will never be taken out of politics as long as judges are elected by popular vote. The effort is worth while to reduce as far as possible the influences tending to tinge justice with partisanship. Non-party ballots and the primary may help. But the average judge, desiring re-election at the end of his term, can never quite dismiss political "ifs" and "ands" from his deliberations. The situation would be made much worse if judges were to be free to use their positions on the bench to court non-judicial political honors.

It is well to have the whole situation cleared so far as the courts of Ohio are concerned. If a constitutional amendment is necessary, as now urged, in order to forbid the mixing of politics and justice in the manner suggested for the Smith case, there should be no hesitation in submitting such a proposal.

Opponents of Judge Smith have not charged that he misused his office in the recent campaign. The move against him was hindered on technical grounds. The important point—that the situation created by the judge's candidacy for a state office was not conducive to an independent judiciary—remains, and is not apparently affected by the supreme court's decision.

IN BLOOD DISEASES

Like Scrofula Eczema, and Many Skin Troubles.
As well as a general skin medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla is of great value to those suffering with blood diseases.

It does its thorough work in these blood diseases by cleansing the blood on the inside, the healthy condition of each depends upon the vigor and tone of the blood system.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is equally successful in the treatment of diseases that are not so well defined—cases of a low blood condition or general debility, loss of appetite and that tired feeling which is so often the result of impure blood. It is the only remedy that will cure the blood and give the system a new lease of life.

Hood's Pills help as a stomach tonic, improve the circulation, and give the system a new lease of life.

THE ADVOCATE'S TRAVELLING TOP

America has furnished to the world the character of Washington. And if our American institutions had done nothing else, that alone would have entitled them to the respect of mankind. —Daniel Webster.

The Four Georges.
"I feel that same is a very good name," George Washington said, said he. "There is Clarendon and Lloyd George, you know, and King George of England and me."

Well, she went into Annie Spinks and Annie seen her a-come from upstairs. So she called down soft-like to her sister, "Minnie," she says, "here comes that off Nery Gyrle and I'm not at home." she says, "not noing that Minnie had already let Nery in. Nery heard it of course and it made her mad as a hen, and she called out reel sharp, "Well, Annie," she says, "that off Nery Gyrle is offle glad, to hear you ain't to home," she says, "though I allus need they want nobody home in your head," she says.

But hold, Miss Spring, dear. This year I'll won't go to your new war garden. Like a blithering Turk.

IMMORTALS.

(By Joseph N. Untermyer.)
There is a beautiful mansion not far away.
Shrouded in mists of shining gold;
And in this mansion immune from decay
Are famous deeds of men of old.
On an oaken table of massive build,
Where shadows flit, and sunbeams run,
Are deeds of greatness—a volume filled
Of "the father of his country" our Washington.

In an alcove stands a pedestal tall,
Bearing records of human kindness done,
And the name carved, where moonbeams fall,
Is "the father of men," our noble Lincoln.

Then down the hall on a flag-draped throne,
Are written deeds to do, and victory won,
And the name engraved on this golden throne,
Is "the father of the world," our immortal Wilson.

AMUSEMENTS

GRAND.

Sunday and Monday.
The Saturday Evening Post story which painted the mock patriot in true colors, "The Price of Applause," a thrilling picture of trench life in France and prison life in Germany; his lust for notoriety plunges him into the trenches of France, but his mock patriotism is ultimately redeemed under the scorching disdain of friends and wife. A pro-German fight for France, is captured by Germany and proves his innate loyalty to America.

GEM.

Sunday.
"Infidelity," based on George Ornet's "Dr. Rameau," a great melodrama, throbbing with soul and tears, rippling with comedy and tense with human interest—a wonderful all-star cast including Frederick Perry, Dorothy Bernard, Jean Sothen and Kittens—admittedly the best production of its sort ever released by William Fox or any other producer.

Monday.

In his Artcraft picture, "The Man from Painted Past," at the Gem theatre, Monday, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., shows many new, cow-boy tricks learned from champions of a recent Rodeo Meet, who appear with him in the photoplay. The story of Wyoming cattle rustling days, presents the Audubon Densley in many thrilling situations, offering typical Fairbanks surprises.

LYRIC.

The Ginger Girls Musical comedy produced Friday night "The New Judge" was a decided hit. The Harmony Jazz Trio was the hit of the bill, being encored several times and had to take many bows. The same bill will be shown Saturday, matinee and night. The show is being held over for next week by the management of the Lyric. If you want to laugh, pay a visit to the Lyric and have a treat.

AUDITORIUM.

"How Could You, Jean?"
Appearing in a role no less fascinating than any of her previous portrayals, the imitable Mary Pickford was seen in her latest Artcraft photoplay, "How Could You, Jean?" at the Auditorium yesterday. Many picture and star demerits are attributed to her popularity with emphasis, and Miss Pickford was able to add another artistic characterization to her famous gallery of picture portrayals.

In this superb picture Miss Pickford appears as an aristocratic young woman, who is suddenly deprived of her income through the failure of her father, and who bravely resolves to earn her own living, notwithstanding the protestations of her aristocratic friends, who harbor the belief that her fortunes may mend without her resorting to this menial occupation for a livelihood. Other features include the Pathe News, "The Stars Twinkle Away From the Studio." The last showings are given today.

"Vivette."

Manager Fenberg has arranged for amusement seekers tomorrow (Sunday) what he considers a dandy corksing program with dainty Vivian Martin as the headliner who is seen in a Lasky, Paramount production, "Vivette," a story by Wm. J. Locke, who is responsible for many stage successes. In this Miss Martin acts and does it fine. The story, which is centered around irresponsible Little Vivette, who has aroused the ire of Eugene Fallette, a character as an Englishman who loves nature and who is consequently hailed as a primitive man. Harrison Ford, as the brother, is a different type, he having become a successful attorney. The story is full of thrilling climaxes and it will please all picture fans. As an extra added feature a new comedy, new to the Auditorium, Smiling Billy Parsons is seen here in "Birds of A Feather." These comedies have never been shown in Newark and if they make good, they will be shown each week. The Pathe News, also the orchestra under the leadership of Prof. Schmidt, with its new violinist, L. Scholz, late of the "Hearts of the World" company, make his first bow to the public as a member of Mgr. Fenberg's clever orchestra.

"The Smarter Set."

Manager Fenberg announces the usual yearly engagement of what is conceded in theatrical circles, the best colored show on earth, Whitney and Tutt's "Smarter Set" which comes to the Auditorium for two performances next Monday. A special bargain matinee will be given Monday afternoon at which the prices are within reach of all. In bringing "The Smarter Set" to Newark, the management believes he hits the bull's-eye for amusement, for from reports received from Cincinnati and Cleveland (the company is playing Cleveland this week) they say the show is "best ever." The Smarter Set this season are offering the newest musical comedy, "Darkest Americans," merry, hilarious, delightful and gay, brilliant in fun, music and clean comedy. The story of "Darkest Americans" tells of Dean Kelly Miller of Howard University, who goes on a voyage of archaeological research in the interest of his college. Abe and Gabe Washington enter Howard under false pretenses. Dean Miller is lost. Abe and Gabe are commissioned to search for the missing Dean. This search carries them to all parts of the globe and they are participants in many exciting and ludicrous adventures.

"Testing of Mildred Vane."

What might be termed an internaional act is seen in support of May Allison, the beautiful Metro star of "The Testing of Mildred Vane," which will be shown at the Auditorium Tuesday for one day.

Miss Allison is of the south's most aristocratic blood and a thorough-going American. Darrell Foss, her leading man, is also an American but the rest of the noted cast are from lands across the seas. Fred Goodwin is an Englishman, and although he is well known on the American stage and has spent many years in this country is still a subject of King George. Nigel De Bruiler, who plays the father is a Frenchman, while George Field, born in Spain, has the role of the Spaniard of the play, Miguel Hernandez. To make the twist in the plot more complete, Belgian, Swiss and Italian girls were among those who played small bits in the production.

Husband and Wife Agree on One Thing.
Of Lyman H. Howe's Travel Festival, now on its 49th consecutive semi-annual tour, which comes to the Auditorium these on Wednesday afternoon and evening, a young woman commented recently as follows:

"I am always glad when the Lyman H. Howe pictures come to town. They are the only thing my husband and I agree about." He always goes to a minstrel show whenever one comes, and I always go to anything musical, but both of us always go to the Howe pictures." This no doubt reflects the esteem in which the Lyman H. Howe Travel Festival is held wherever it goes. It is probably the only production extant that is capable of entertaining every member of the family, from grandfather down to the tiniest tot. The new Howe program is said to be remarkable for its diversity. In it follows of this resourceful globe-trotter are waited as if by magic to many climes. The pictures carry the spectators from a hunting and fishing trip in the wilds of Canada to a perilous expedition in the South Seas, whose monster sea-monsters, sharks and swordfish are captured. Then the Howe "tourists" are taken to the Alps to witness spectacular evolutions of Italian soldiers, whisked to the Orient for a comprehensive journey through Japan, and returned to America for a breath-taking flight over Washington in a somersaulting warplane. Seats are placed on sale for both performances next Monday morning.

ALHAMBRA.

"The Firefly of France."
That "The Firefly of France," starring Wallace Reid and Ann Little, should have scored so heavily on the picture-going public at the Alhambra yesterday, is quite understandable. First, the picture, because of the spirit of patriotism which animates it, is one of the best seen here in many weeks, and second, these two stars never appeared in more congenial roles, as the frequent manifestations of the large audience amply testified.

Devereaux Bayne is a young American of wealth who goes to the French front as an ambulance driver. He falls in with Esme Falconer, a young woman who is searching for some papers, secreted by the "Firefly," an aviator who is missing, and who is her relative. These papers are urgently desired by several German spies and here you have the basis for one of the most interesting picture stories it is possible to conceive. How Bayne frustrates the spies and wins the love of Esme, as well as the cross of war, is admirably told in scenes that hold one's breath to the end. The last screenings are seen today.

"Honor's Cross."

"Would you take a chance on the rope for real dough?" This startling interrogation, hurled by the "Hon." Thomas Dolan at one of his "protection money" collectors leads to one of the most thrilling incidents in "Honor's Cross," a Selectart production teeming with thrills, to be distributed by Goldwyn. Dolan, a corrupt political leader, who had long lived on the proceeds of vice, is stunned by the news that the district attorney has raided some places under Dolan's supposed protection.

Desperate, he turns to his aid in crime, who has brought word of the raid, and delivers himself of the startling question as calmly as though killing prosecutors was an ordinary function for a thieving politician's assistant.

After a moment's thought Dolan's lieutenant is seen striking his head in assent, but makes his chief understand that though he can hire a man to murder, it must be at the slayer's price.

"The Honor Cross" also the Smiling Bill Parsons comedy, "Bill's Baby," is shown at the Alhambra theatre tomorrow, Sunday, Frank Reynolds, organist, at this theatre, has arranged a special organ program and for those seeking a program that will please, we would say, it's the Alhambra tomorrow.

More than a hundred soldiers and sailors were used by Director Frank Lloyd in a scene in the newest William Farnum de luxe production, "For Freedom," which will be seen at the Alhambra Monday and Tuesday. The scene was the interior of a canteen established for the comfort of the "boys" while in New York City, and, like every well regulated canteen, the boys had plenty to eat and drink, with the addition of pay when the day's work was finished.

No one was more pleased at having the soldier and sailor boys in the scene than the star, Mr. Farnum, who spent his leisure moments between filming in talking to them. Several told him admiringly of various pictures in which they had seen him.

Houdini.
Seldom has the Strand Theatre, New York, held a more representative "me" audience than the one which assembled, and crowded the theatre, to witness the private showing of the first four episodes of the Houdini serial, "The Master Mystery," presented by the E. A. Remond Productions, says the Exhibitor's Trade Review.

The advance advertising campaign in the trade papers had whetted the appetites of all of us and we went to the showing with the feeling, "Well, this sure has got to be good; it's got to be better than most of them, or we'll be mighty disappointed." Well, we weren't disappointed, not the least bit, in fact, we saw four episodes of one of the best serials that have ever been made, just packed full of action and stunts galore. Harry Houdini wasn't the least bit camera shy. He played like a veteran and put his big scenes over with the sort of punch that never fails to get to the spectator.

Before half a row of the first episode had been projected the audience in the Strand were deeply absorbed in the pictured scenes being unfolded. The house was so quiet you could hear a pin drop and everyone was giving their undivided attention to the serial.

This wonderful serial comes to the Alhambra theatre next Wednesday and Thursday and will be seen each episode weekly for 15 weeks.

WILL HELP REPORT ON INCOME TAX

Collector Williamson Sends Deputy to Newark to Give Information On Tax Matters.

Get ready for the Income Tax man. He will arrive in Newark on February 24th and will be located at the post-office, where he can be consulted with out charge.

"Bring in your figures, your problems, your doubts, and your questions," is his invitation contained in the announcement of his coming visit.

Collector of Internal Revenue, E. E. Williamson, is sending one of his deputies, Chris. Schwerin, solely to help people in this vicinity to determine their individual liability and to comply with the laws requirements as to 1918 incomes.

His office hours will be from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. each day, and he will remain in town until the close of business on March 15th.

"This free advisory service," writes Collector Williamson, "is planned for those who are required for the first time to consider their liability and to make sworn returns."

"Many thousands who were not affected by the prior Federal laws taxing incomes must this year file returns. Here are the requirements:

"Every unmarried person who had a net income of $1,000 or over during 1918; and every married person who, together with wife or husband, and minor children, had a net income of $2,000 in 1918.

"The advice and services of the Deputy Collector are entirely free, and he is authorized to administer the oath required on returns, free of charge.

Persons who are taxable should make payment when filing their returns by attaching check or money-order.

"This tax is a war tax burden; it is a part of the price of victory, the great victory that the world has known. I believe the people of this district will meet it fully, and I am offering every facility of my office to aid them to determine their individual liability."

SAYS WIFE ADMITS LOVE FOR ANOTHER

In the case of Ola Britton against John Britton, an answer and cross-petition has been filed by Britton. For his cross-petition he alleges that he has conducted himself as a loving and dutiful husband and even now has his home ready for the return of his wife. He charges that for more than two years she has refused to live with him and left her home on February 24, 1913, taking their child and going to the home of her parents in St. Albans township.
He says that Mrs. Britton and her parents came to their home and packed the furniture over his protests and left.
Britton says that on March 25 his wife and child returned to his home in Jersey township and remained until September 28, when she again left, and refused to let him know her whereabouts; that she returned with her brother, packed the goods, including canned fruits, and when he attempted to persuade her not to take the things away she choked him while her brother threatened to hit him over the head with a frying-pan.

Britton also alleges that plaintiff told him she did not like him but loved another and named him; that Mrs. Britton's mother told Britton that it was his wife wanted to run around with fellows and take buggy-rides with other men it was none of his business. He asks that his wife's petition be dismissed and he be granted the decree.

SOLDIER SUES FOR DECREE OF DIVORCE

Thos. W. Chidlaw has filed a petition in common pleas court against Luella Chidlaw. They were married January 2, 1913, and the petition recites that defendant has been guilty of gross neglect of duty in that she has in disregard of her marital duties refused to show the proper respect for the plaintiff while he was in the service of the United States army, and that defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff in that by her actions and ad-

Will Not Be One Day Without PE-RU-NA

This Lady TELLS Her FRIENDS

Mrs. Mary Fricke, 507 Bornman St., Belleville, Ill., is just one of the many thousands of ladies throughout the country who, after an agony of years, have at last found health, strength and vigor in PE-RU-NA.

Her own words tell of her suffering and recovery better than we can do it: "I suffered with my stomach, had awful cramps and headaches and I often could not lay on a pillow.
Saw your book, tried PE-RU-NA and got good results from the first bottle. To be sure of a cure I took twelve bottles.
I have recommended PE-RU-NA to my friends and all are pleased with results. I will not be one day without PE-RU-NA. Have not had a doctor since I started with PE-RU-NA, which was about fifteen years ago. I am now sixty-three years old, hale, hearty and well. Can do as much work as my daughters. I feel strong and healthy and weigh near two hundred pounds. Before, I weighed as little as one hundred. I hope lots of people use PE-RU-NA and get the results I did." An experience like that of Mrs. Fricke is an inspiration to every sick and suffering woman.

If you have catarrh, whether it be of the nose, throat, stomach, bowels, or other organs, PE-RU-NA is the remedy. Mrs. Mary Fricke It is not new; it is not an experiment. PE-RU-NA has been tried. PE-RU-NA has been used by thousands who once were sick and are now well. To prevent coughs, colds, grip and influenza and to hasten recovery there is nothing better.

PE-RU-NA will improve the appetite and digestion, purify the blood, soothe the irritated mucous linings, eradicate the waste material and corruption from the system. It will tone up the nerves, give you health, strength and vigor and the joy of living. Do what Mrs. Mary Fricke and thousands more have done—try PE-RU-NA. You will be glad, happy, thankful.
